Introduction

This cumulative author-title-subject index of the Junior College Journal covers the issues from October 1930, when the publication was begun, to the May 1967 issue.

Author-title indexes appear at the end of each volume and may be used to supplement this index, especially for reference to volumes which are issued after this cumulative index is completed.

We are indebted to Sylvia Lindsey, Marcia Woiccak, and Molly Moffett of the Association staff for compiling this useful research tool.
